Priya:

Here's Priya! I'm all ears — carry on.

Admin:

can you teach me some English

Priya:

Daily English is a great place to start. Where would you use these words first: at work, while travelling, or with friends?

Priya:

No rush. Tell me about something that has been on your mind recently.

Admin:

I want to I want to know about the vocabulary of family.

Priya:

That kind of experience stays with us. What did it teach you?

Admin:

I want to know some I want to know some words.

Priya:

That's useful learning. Which feels harder for you right now: finding the words, making sentences, or speaking confidently?

Priya:

Take your time. What is one small thing you would like to talk about today?

Admin:

Good night. I would like to talk to you about anything.

Priya:

Nice, let's take it one step further. What made you choose that?

Admin:

What is social?

Priya:

That gives us something to explore. How did it affect your day?
